Elk Creek bridge to Our school. Rubber and material are now much cheaper than they have been, and we believe it is as much needed now as any place in the city.

We respectfully ask that the contract be awarded at once, so that it can be completed before bad weather.

"W. L. Highland, George L. Donavan, F. R. Harrison, F. B. Haymaker, E. G. Smith, Charles W. Turke, S. H. Wilson, W. A. Gaylord, F. C. Williams, Mrs. Emilie Carr, M. M. Carr, J. M. Carter, Lloyd F. Endure, John A. Smith, John L. Reid, John Kellegher, Raymond Maxwell, E. H. Kellegher, Hugh Jarvis, Edna Southdown, Mary E. Freeman, Minnie Freeman, Emily Freeman, M. O. Goff, Lydia Smith, Harry F. Smith, M. Anna Dean, E. R. Davis, C. A. Horner, Miller Snider, John H. Clifford, Sarah Clifford."

The city engineer's estimate was as follows:

Statement of the cost of paving and curbing Elk Creek street from the bridge across Elk Creek to Oak street, a distance of 1,423 feet. The street to be paved 20 feet wide:
1,423 ft. by 20 feet, or $10,828
sq. ft. $1,000 sq. yds. by 1,651.89,722 sq. 2,000 linear ft. of curb in place
by 30 1,900 cu. ft.
$11,082.89

Less amount paid by electric railroad, 1,139 yds. by 1,651.89,722 sq.

3,800 cu. ft. of curb in place
by 30 1,000 cu. ft.
$1,000 cu. ft.

The work was ordered done with the provision that the amount be carried as a loan for one and two years in equal sums by the banks, and the school committee recommended that the work be done by W. H. Virginia, on the same conditions as at the present contract the day he has with him.

City Treasurer Steele reported $12,000 collected from June 18 to 26, and $10,000 paid out for that period.

The water works committee reported the work in good shape.

The Fairmont & Clarksburg Tracing Company made it known that it was owner of a franchise over certain streets of the city and asked for transfer of the franchise to it. This was done.

Business licenses were granted to Anna McMillen on West Pine street, A. T. Redman under Hally saloon, Mrs. Carrie Brown at 348 High Pike street and John F. Kivine for a new front of his jewelry store.

Building permits were granted to John A. Fordney for a two-story dwelling on Laurel street, John M. Brown at 306 Mountain avenue for a three-room cottage, Walter Jennings for a two-story house on East Pike street.

Warden's license to sell liquor on the streets was granted to Andy Ross, under the supervision of the mayor and chief of police.

Attorney H. T. Houston presented the claim of Martin Reed of 308 for removing a smallpox pustule for three weeks and two days. The master was held on the charges until the next meeting for investigation.
